4) Fee & Payment

- On TryMyTutor.com, Tutors always set their own rates. As with any business, your earning power and frequency of new leads is often tied to your experience, demand for your skills, number of subjects or keywords you've marked in your profile and distance you can travel.
- Once you build your reputation through consistent conversion of new clients, we'll be able to command higher rates from new clients for your proven skills. In fact, on average, we increase your hourly rate by almost 40% after a year of working with us and close to 100% after 2 years i.e doubled.
- We will inform you about the client's budget. We suggest tutor's rates on the basis of availability of the tutors in their location for their requirement (Supply & Demand Economics). The client's budget or tutor's rate is inclusive of tuition fee, conveyance charges, our commission charge and/or any other taxes if applicable.
- You'll be paid only for the sessions you have taken. Sessions missed can be reconducted only on approval from the parents/student. No bill can be raised for non conducted sessions/classes except a class cancelled without informing (Class Cancellation Policy) from student/parent side. All payment is calculated after adding the due hours at the agreed hourly rate.
- Class Cancellation Policy; No charge if cancelled by notifying at least 2 hours prior to the class time or else 50% of session fee will be levied on student/parent.
- Once the assignment/tuition is finalised/confirmed we collect our part of payment i.e. the commission fee directly from the parents/student/customer as a booking amount. The rest of the payment you may collect directly from the customer at the end of every month.
- We start approaching you with next tuition-job opportunities once the cost of the first/previous tuition/lead/assignment is recovered in the form of commission to us.

Why do we charge commission fees ?

People ask us why do we charge a commission fee? Why is it not free? or Why do we charge this amount? or Why do you charge any amount beyond 50% of one month or 8 hours of payments? etc etc..

So we thought to be more transparent and therefore we public out the expenses and costs we bear per converted lead.

A lump-sum of expense segregations explained per converted lead;

- ❑ Salaries+incentives+welfare+Insurance+Legals+Conveyance (12 hours working, operations & sales team, tech-team, accounts & Legals) costs us 1200
- ❑ Taxes & Banking (GST as per Indian Govt Taxes, cash deposit charges, cheque other bank related charges, paytm charges, card payment gateway charges and other surcharges), Costs us 600
- ❑ Ads/Promotions/social-media/SEO, costs us 650. We work on only 10% of the total leads we receive. 90% of the inquiry leads are filtered out because of different reasons like budget and complexity of the requirement.

- ❑ Office(rent, commercial electricity, tap water, drinking water, sweeper, stationery, furniture, Repairs and maintenance), Costs us 600
- ❑ Communications/Networks (internet, SMS, website, phones, servers, computers and accessories), Costs us 450
- ❑ Miscellaneous -100
- ❑ Expansion/Growth-200
- ❑ Profit- If something left after the expenses.

Total Expense = $1200+450+650+600+200+100+600 = 3800$

Dos and Don'ts!

Be Professional. Never address a parent as Uncle or Aunty. Only Sir/Ma'am or Mr/Mrs.

Do Not discuss property, relationships or occupation.

Be Relevant. Always inform the parents only about your RELEVANT experience of similar Class, Subject, Course/Board/ and School. (i.e. If they're looking for class 10th tutor, you should not mention your experience of teaching class 7th or 12th. If they're looking for a Physics tutor, you should not mention your experience as a Math or Science tutor. If the student is from ICSE you should mention only about ICSE Experience, not CBSE. If the student is from an elite private school, you should not mention about govt school.)

Be Responsive. Be Punctual. Be Confident.

Be Productive. Every single minute of a child is crucial. They pay you for every minute. You should not waste it by reading, understanding and then explaining. You must be prepared for the lesson you're gonna deliver.

Be Neat & Tidy. Avoid visiting if you're extensively wet with sweat during summer.

Be Fluent & Speak only in English even if parents talk in Hindi. Same goes with Students during the class.

Be Flexible with timings, days and duration as per the demand.

Be Negotiable at times it needed to crack the deal. We give you a window to negotiate upto 20% of the fee we quoted with the customer.

Build Reputation on TryMyTutor.com by converting leads. On the basis of performance we automatically increase your rates.

Maintain Attendance-Sheet mentioning time, date, duration and topic taught. Get it attested by the student/parent daily or weekly.

Demo-

Try to give demo when parents are present because they're the decision makers and paymaster.

Try to persuade the client to have a tutoring session before discussing anything. It's easier to convince after an hour of teaching. Your teaching session is important to finalize the deal.

Be Positive. Never Demoralize, Defame, Discourage or Depress any student.

Avoid Phone! Value of Time. You're getting paid for every single minute.

You must not discuss/disclose the commission share between us, with students or their parents.

Inform minimum 5 days in advance to the agency before discontinuing any tuition.
